The small town of Slumber.

It is surrounded by a great, foggy swamp, nearly isolating the whole town from the out-side world.

iten

Muffet Lane

This town holds many wonders and mysteries,

yet to be explored..

One of many,

The only thing connecting the town to the outside,

the Cradle Train.

But beware..

The train does not only connect to quiet small towns and bustling cities.

FWSSSSH--

Oh my, so you actually came...

Azazel.

Ha.

Don't act so arrogant, kid.

You call me out here out of nowhere,

who do you think you are?

Have you no conscience?

Faust.

Your name carries quite a reputaion for your young age already.

I know all about the sins you've commited.

I have no intention of associating with the likes of you.

I only came here to warn you. We're aware of everything you're doing.

Hm.
Is that so?

How cruel
though.
You've really hurt my feelings.

Still I should be honoured
you've heard
of me.

Azazel,
the first Fallen.

I do have one
question,
however.

If you've only come here to issue your warning...

How come you've brought your little squad
there?

Hmph.
I should be asking you the exact same question.

Oh my,

LOOM

so you noticed? Just as expected.

Even though they were hiding so well.

Ha,

you're quite proud of associating with those fiends.

Even though you're a human.

Don't be so angry. They're only here because they sensed your hostility.

So, would you mind telling me your real agenda?

There's been a change of plans.

I can't let you continue as things are now.

Your influence will only grow if I leave you be.

SST∞

We'll put an end to this now!

CRACK

Ooh! That's impressive!

That's a real halo?! A device implanted into angels' heads to enhance their senses.

And a holy sword extracted from your own flesh and bones.

Well, I suppose not so holy anymore..

Don't think you know everything about us, brat.

Well, I hardly know anything about you guys yet. Since you angels are so secrective.

I honestly couldn't give one fuck about you exposing Heaven's secrets.

He he

What I do care about is you, hunting and experimenting on my fallen siblings.

That's right! This bastard won't get away with what he's done!

We'll avenge our brothers and sisters.

He's done unthinkable experiments on our siblings.

We won't forgive him!

You're just a human but you've brought all of these demons to this place.

You, alone have caused a whole rat infestation already.

You guys are so mean.

I only wanted to get to know you a little more.

We're putting an end to this now!

Dead angels don't talk much, you know.

Enough!

CRACK

CRACK

STOMP

Not so fast, meat.

out of the way!!

!!

CLANK

It's too bad you can't play with the big kids.

Hehe..

It's ok though. We'll have some fun of our own.

You beasts are getting what's coming for you too!

CR TCH

Remember, don't be too rough...

...

DA SH

In reality without your followers,

you're just a normal, helpless child.

But it wouldn't be this easy, would it?

Wow! You really are sharp!

Just as I expected of you, Azazel!

CRACK

Even HE couldn't hide from you.

So it is true...

This kid even brought a former arch-demon here.

What the hell are you planning,

Mephisto-pheles.

Faust?

RIIING!

CLICK

FLOP

Goodmorning,

Isobelle.

Hop!
